Living spaces designed for impact, softened by the warmth of wood floors reserved exclusively for the private bedroom of the home, a thoughtfully designed culinary core anchors the space. A discreet butler's pantry seamlessly connects to a terrace that extends from the main living areas through the family room and bedrooms, blurring the line between interior and exterior. A master suite on the main level, while upstairs the primary retreat offers a private sanctuary with sitting area and spa-like bathroom. Offering for those who value design, flow, and presence.
