ABOUT THIS PROPERTY

In an era of mass-produced homes, an exceptional opportunity awaits to own the first architectural creation of Charles G. Mather, this residence became the signature project that launched his celebrated career. Tucked within the prestigious concrete and glass. Set on a lush half-acre, the house seamlessly connects to the natural backyard hammock through the interiors, including clay floors & exquisite woodwork, along with extensive built-in cabinetry. The exceptional craft by Enzo Vincente Gallo at the beginning of his own distinguished career. Over the past six decades, the home has been in Miami-Dade, known for its dense tree canopy and estate-like privacy. The area sits on what was once Warwick Ham Matheson Hammock Park, and the shops and restaurants of Coral Gables and South Miami. A Very Special Home.
