The home has a massive floor plan, complimented by a large balcony positioned perfectly to overlook the bay and sunset. A wet/wine bar creates a dedicated space for serving and entertaining friends and family. The primary suite is framed by floor-to-ceiling windows, offering a private view of the water from home. The spa-inspired bathroom features a separate shower, floating tub, and an oversized dual vanity. While the kitchen is a chef's dream, the open-concept living area is a masterpiece of modern design.
