ABOUT THIS PROPERTY

Tucked along the northern tip of Dillido Island, this flawlessly renovated residence sits on one of the Venetian Islands. The exterior is by Taylor and interiors by Laura Hodges Studio and inspired by French island living—the home offers approximately 3,000 sq ft of space, fully upgraded, including new electrical, plumbing, HVAC, hurricane-impact windows and doors, and a full-house generator. The kitchen, completed in 2026, serves as a focal point, anchored by a striking arched marble island with a built-in breakfast bar, access to a newly added private terrace, and a custom-built walk-in closet. A dedicated fitness space and an additional bedroom are also included, along with lush, professionally designed landscaping. Additional features include a two-car garage with custom storage. Ideal for those seeking luxury in one of Miami's most sought-after island neighborhoods.
